

REFLECTING ON MY ONLINE TEACHING

CHALLENGES & OPPORTUNITIES

“BUILDING A PLANE
WHILE FLYING IT AT THE SAME TIME”

Technology Challenges

- Redesigning the course content from face-to-face to synchronous/asynchronous
- Barriers of e-learning for students
 - Lack of computers/tablets
 - Insufficient /unstable internet connectivity

Pedagogical Challenges

- Delivery of Content

My role will be transformed from the traditional teacher-centric to student-centric model

- Students' Engagement

For synchronous courses, keep students on the platform for the entire session

OPPORTUNITIES

“Finding the Positive in Every Situation”

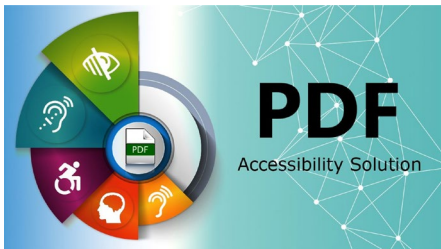

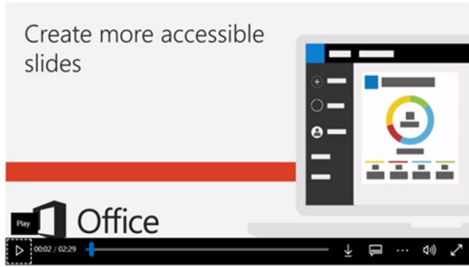

“We cannot stay in our comfort zone and keep learning. New challenges are opportunities for us.”

- Reevaluating My Teaching Method
 - The shift to online teaching was a great opportunity to acquire technological skills .
 - My role as a teacher changed from being the one and sole source of knowledge to being a guide.

DISCOVERED A WIDE RANGE OF GAMING PLATFORMS THAT IMPROVES STUDENTS' ENGAGEMENT

Inclusive Learning Environment

Implementing digital technology:

- Promotes and facilitates inclusive learning
- Enhances the student learning experience

Online Professional development

Increase access to professional development

- Self-paced courses, workshops and webinars